CHEAP ADVERTISING.

which is about twice as large as that of any Legislature, and Theodore Smith, (lighter colother paper published in South Carolina, is the best advertising medium for all business men. For persons who want situations or servants; write "tolerably well," and are of average inwho want houses or apartments, or have them to rent; who want or who offer board and lodging; who have lost or found articles of value, THE NEWS has no equal; and in order that all classes may have their wants supplied, we have adopted the following scale of CHEAP ADVER-TISEMENTS, payment for which must invariably be made when the order is given: offered to clerks, governesses, tutors, workon, mechanics, house-servants, porters, shopboys, cooks and washers; board and lodging wanted or offered; apartments wanted or to let; articles lost or found; houses, shops, offices and warehouses wanted or to let, and miscellaneous wants of all kinds.

For each insertion of advertisements of the classes specified: Not exceeding THREE LINES or 20 words....25 cents

SERVICE AFLOAT.-Mr. R. Caldwell, Jr., is now canvassing the city, as the agent of Mr. John Russell, for subscribers to Admiral Semmes work, "Bervice Aflost."

COPY BIGHT GRANTED .- Mr. Wm. R. Schmidt, of this city, obtained a copyright yesterday for a book entitled, "Fenianism, the legiti-mate child of Despotism, proved by the evidence of seven centuries."

Experion at Darlington.—Cyrus Coachman (colored) is to be hanged to-day, between the hours of 11 A. M. and 2 P. M., at Darling ton Courthouse, for the murder of Robert P. Sugge near Florence, on the 10th of January MARVIN'S SAFE .- The safe made by Marvin & Co., of New York, fer THE NEWS office, is a cimen of the work of that well known firm. It is one of latest pattern, with the combination lock, and is very handsomely finished. W. M. Bird & Co., No. 203 East Bay, are the agents for these celebrated safes.

FRIEND-STREET,-The shocking condition of this thoroughfare for the residents in the heard at the July term next ensuing of said southwestern portion of the city, is the subject of much complaint. It is without a sidewalk badly. Even a wooden ourb filled in with earth, would be better than none, Something certainly should be done for the improvement of Friend-street at an early day.

DEUG LABELS.—We desire to call the attention of druggists in the city and throughout the State to the peculiar facilities of THE NEWS Job Office for printing all kinds of drug labels, ription blanks, &c., at the shortest notice, and in a style unsurpassed anywhere in the country. Our stock of cuts, borders and fancy type is unusually large and choice. Call and examine specimens of work.

THE WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER RAIL-BOAD -Judge Carpenter, upon the application of the President and Directors of the Bank of the State of South Carolina, has enjoined M. K. Jessup, trustee, from making sale of the property of this railroad, and has enjoined the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad Company from delivering to any person the property now in the use and charge of the company. Upon giving ten days' notice, a motion may be made for the dissolution of the injunction.

PORTRAIT PAINTING now-a-days is reduced to a science, and the artist, by the assistance of the camera, is enabled to promise with absolute certainty a likeness that will be perfect in its fidelity to the original, and at the same time far less costly than first-class portraits in oil have usually been in the past. A striking instance of the late improver in this particular department of art may be seen at Quinby & Co.'s Photograph Gallery, where lite size portraits of two old and well known citizens of Charleston are temporarily on exhibition. These are executed in oil on canvass and while admirable in coloring and expression possess a perfection of outline that skill, however eminent, unassisted by natural science, could hardly hope to attain. We learn that the portraits were painted in New York from photographs by Quinby & Co. They are well worth a visit.

REFORTERS' CRUMBS.—It is rumored that a well known colored professor of the tonsorial art, will soon obtain a berth in the Custom-house. What next? A much needed flag-stone crossing has been laid from THE NEWS office to the opposite side-

Afternoon service in St. Michael's Church, will, on and after next Sunday, begin at six o'clock, and continue at that hour until further afternoon, and will lecture there, and thence proceed to Savannah. There is a fence lying on the sidewalk in Broad-street, near King-street, which is a considerable annoyance (especially after dark) to passers by. The sexton of St. Michael's Church com plains that the graveyard of that church is frequently robbed of flowers and plants, and warns trespassers that they will be dealt with according to law unless they desist. Henderson Jones, colored, has escaped from the penitentiary, and is still at large, The remains of the late James Murdoch will consigned to their last resting place to-day in the Unitarian Churchyard, Archdale-street. The hotel arrivals now are unusually light. The Oriental goods sold by Miles Drake yes-terday brought high prices. Where does the money come from?

ROBBERY.—The tailoring establishment of Robert Hare, colored, Meeting-street, near Wentworth, was broken into yesterday morning, at two o'clock, and robbed of a quantity of material and made-up clothing. The perpetrators of this act are known to be colored men, as they were seen by a person from th opposite window. Singular to say, they were allowed to escape without hindrance or ever an alarm.

THE POSTOFFICE COLORED CLERKS .- The names of the negroes who are to be installed as clerks in the Postoffice respectively on the 1st of July and 1st of August, (in place of the brothers Gunn, two good white Union men,) are, George Lee, an ex-member of the famous THE CHARLESTON NEWS, the circulation of Club House Convention and a member of the ored than George, who is rather sable in hue,) formerly a paper-hanger in the employ of Mr. Kiusman, King-street. They both read and telligence.

THE NAVAL NONDESCRIPT launched by Dr. Augustus Fitch, at the foot of Broad-street, on Wednesday last, is a novel kind of boat. It has been the result of long pains-taking on the part of the Doctor, who constructed it on his own premises in his leisure moments. It resembles a small steamer, and is propelled by rotary paddles in the centre, on either side of Advertisements of situations wanted by or which are keels twelve inches deep. The craft is provided with double rudders, which are conveniently manouvered by a capstan. Built for pleasure service on the pond, it has not proven in all respects as successful an experinent as was anticipated, but will fully serve the purpose for which she was designed.

RISING IN THE PROPESSION .- Our theatregoing readers will not have forgotten Miss Kate Raymond, a young, spirited and rather petite actress, who some time ago was a member of Templeton's stock company, sustaining generally what are known as soubrette parts. subsequently, she attached herself to the drama connected with Lowande's circus, and having made that kind of acting her specialty, she seems to have achieved considerable success. We see by the Northern papers that she is starring it in the principal cities as "Mazeppa," "The French Spy," &c. In Washington, where she is now playing, she is advertised as "the dashing equestrienne and comedienne, Miss Kate Raymond," and in coninnotion with "her famous trained mare, Black Bess," seems to be drawing crowded houses.
